

GUIDELINE OF LECCE city card

All the advantages of the city in your pocket

Your trip to discover the city starts here:

Free admissions in private museums of the city; discounts at tourist facilities, restaurants, coffee bars, beaches, bookshops, craft shops that participate in the initiative are just some of the benefits that you can get by requesting the LECCE city card which will allow you to make your stay a memorable one.

The cost of the Lecce city card is only €12,00.

Getting the LECCE city card is easy: you can request it through the website www.albatravelapulia.com; by sending a request to this e-mail address: incoming.le@albatravel.it; by calling +39 0832 349316 or by a request to an authorized dealer. After your request you will receive by mail the voucher that allows you to take advantage of the facilities provided by the card.

The voucher is personal and not transferable. You only have to show it at the entrance of one of the contracted museums, receive the card and get affix a stamp. Since then, the card will allow you to visit the museums during the following three days.

The permanent collections of the museums can be visited only once, inquiring in advance about the days and times of opening. These and other information are specified in the guide that you will receive by mail and which has been created to make the most of your stay .

To take advantage of the discounts you will simply have to show the voucher or the card before making the payment at the contracted shops. The discounts are not combinable with other promotions and are valid for one year from the date of issue.

LECCE city card offers you the best of the city.
