Museum of Papier Mache

The path has been designed with particular attention to communication. Videos, images, reconstructions of "shop", make the visit itinerary a way to "travel" in the world of papier mache and its symbolic city: Lecce. An unbreakable bond between the city and the art of papier mache, renewed the tradition kept alive by the workshops of paper pulp that fascinate all who wander through the streets of the fifth stage of the Baroque city. The collection consists of about 80 works by major artists in Lecce, including loggerhead, Capoccia, Guacci, Errico, Pantaleo, Mazzeo, Indino, Malecore, Gallucci, and covers a time span from the eighteenth century. comes to the present day with works by international artists such as Emilio Farina and the Brazilian Lucia Barata.

The museum is situated in the halls on the ground floor of the Castle of Charles V.
